Guest Speaker:

Bed Bugs: A 21st Century Pest

Mark D. Sheperdigian, BCE

Rose Pest Solutions

Bed bugs have been around for centuries, but in the 1960s they disappeared. Since then, they have not been a problem, but in the late 1990s they appeared again, not only in the United States, but other countries as well. The problems surrounding bed bugs are on the rise and you will learn the history, what has been done in the past, what needs to be done, how to identify these pesty creatures by the way they look and who their "look alike" are and most importantly, how to perform an inspection to determine if your units are infested with bed bugs.

Come join us for our first meeting of the fall season and network with peers while learning more about this topic.

yes, I want to attend this informative membership meeting!
